

High-Level Requirements:

1. Separate the register and login user functions into another service
2. When executing toy operations (CRUD), call out to the user service to validate user's authentication
3. Use a separate database for users information
4. If you want to reset your database container, remove the container from Docker and run `sudo -rf rm ~/mysql`` to remove the MySQL state stored locally